What are the key risks that are specific to the issuer?

The Issuer is subject to the following key risks:

Macroeconomic, Geopolitical and Market Environment: As a global corporate and investment bank with a large private client franchise, Deutsche Bank is materially affected by global macroeconomic and financial market conditions. Significant challenges may arise from persistent inflation and rising interest rates, the continuing war in Ukraine, supply chain disruptions, a deteriorating macroeconomic environment and elevated geopolitical risks, the ongoing headwinds posed by regulatory reforms and/or the effects on Deutsche Bank's legal and regulatory proceedings. Other risks exist with respect to China and from political and economic instability in key markets. These risks could negatively affect the business environment, leading to weaker economic activity and a broader correction in the financial markets. Materialization of these risks could negatively affect the results of operations in some of Deutsche Bank's businesses and its financial condition as well as its strategic plans. Deutsche Bank's ability to protect itself against these risks is limited.

Business and Strategy: Deutsche Bank's results of operation and financial condition have in the past been negatively impacted by the market environment, uncertain macroeconomic and geopolitical conditions, lower levels of client activity, increased competition and regulation, along with tightening labor market conditions. If Deutsche Bank is unable to sustain its improved profitability resulting from its transformation, it may be unable to meet its 2025 targets, and may have difficulty maintaining capital, liquidity and leverage at levels expected by market participants and its regulators.

Regulation and Supervision: Regulatory reforms enacted and proposed in response to weaknesses in the financial sector and, more recently, to the envisaged transition towards a sustainable economy, together with increased regulatory scrutiny more generally, have had and continue to have a significant impact on Deutsche Bank and may adversely affect its business and ability to execute its strategic plans. Competent regulators may prohibit Deutsche Bank from making dividend payments, share repurchases or payments on its regulatory capital instruments or take other actions if the Group fails to comply with regulatory requirements.

Internal Control Environment: A robust and effective internal control environment and adequate infrastructure (comprising people, policies and procedures, controls testing and IT systems) are necessary to ensure that Deutsche Bank conducts its business in compliance with the laws, regulations and associated supervisory expectations applicable to Deutsche Bank. Deutsche Bank has identified the need to strengthen its internal control environment and infrastructure and has embarked on initiatives to accomplish this. If these initiatives are not successful or proceed too slowly, Deutsche Bank's reputation, regulatory position and financial condition may be materially adversely affected, and its ability to achieve Deutsche Bank's strategic ambitions may be impaired.

Litigation, Regulatory Enforcement Matters, Investigations and Tax Examinations: Deutsche Bank operates in a highly and increasingly regulated and litigious environment, potentially exposing the bank to liability and other costs, the amounts of which may be substantial and difficult to estimate, as well as to legal and regulatory sanctions and reputational harm.

Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG)-Related Changes: The impacts of rising global temperatures, and the enhanced focus on climate change and the transition to a "net-zero" economy from society, the regulators and the banking sector, have led to new sources of financial and non-financial risks. These include the physical risks arising from extreme weather events which are growing in frequency and severity, as well as transition risks as carbon-intensive sectors are faced with higher taxation, reduced demand and potentially restricted access to financing, and risks relating to the portrayal of ESG aspects of activities. These risks can impact Deutsche Bank across a broad range of financial and non-financial risk types.

What are the key risks that are specific to the securities?

Risks associated with Adjustment and Termination Events

Subject to certain conditions being met, the Issuer may adjust the Final Terms or terminate the Securities. In case of a termination, the Issuer will pay, usually prior to the scheduled settlement date of the Securities, an amount determined by the Calculation Agent. Such amount may be significantly less than an investor's initial investment in Securities and in certain circumstances may be zero.

Any adjustment or termination of the Securities may lead to a loss in value of the Securities or may at maturity lead to the realisation of losses or even to the total loss of the invested amount. It is also not excluded that an adjustment measure will later prove to be incorrect or to be disadvantageous for Securityholders. A Securityholder could also be put in an economically worse position by the adjustment measure than before such adjustment measure.

Risks associated with an early redemption right for the Issuer

The Securities provide for an early redemption right for the Issuer. Therefore, they are likely to have a lower Market Value than otherwise identical Securities which do not contain such an early redemption right. During any period when the Issuer may effect an early redemption of the Securities, the Market Value of those Securities generally will not rise substantially above the price at which early redemption may be effected. This effect may occur in advance of such periods. In such a case, investors may suffer a loss.

Exchange rate / currency risks

An investment in the Securities involves exchange rate and/or currency risks, if the Settlement Currency of the Securities is different from the currency of a Securityholder's home jurisdiction.

The Securities may be Illiquid

It is not possible to predict if and to what extent a secondary market may develop in the Securities or at what price the Securities will trade in the secondary market or whether such market will be liquid. Insofar and as long as the Securities are listed or quoted or admitted to trading on a stock exchange, no assurance is given that any such listing or quotation or admission to trading will be maintained. Higher liquidity does not necessarily result from a listing, quotation or admission to trading.

If the Securities are not listed or quoted or admitted to trading on any stock exchange or quotation system, pricing information for the Securities may be more difficult to obtain and the liquidity of the Securities may be adversely affected. The liquidity of the Securities may also be affected by restrictions on offers and sales of the Securities in some jurisdictions.

Even where an investor is able to realise its investment in the Securities by selling this may be at a substantially lower value than its original investment in the Securities. Depending on the structure of the Securities, the realisation value at any time may be zero (0), which means a total loss of the capital invested. In addition, a transaction fee may be payable in respect of a sale of the Securities.

Regulatory Bail-in and other Resolution Measures / Special status and ranking of the Securities

Laws enable the competent resolution authority to also take measures in respect of the Securities. These measures may have an adverse effect on the Securityholders.

If the legal requirements are met in respect of the Issuer, BaFin, as the resolution authority, may, in addition to other measures, write down Securityholders' claims from the Securities in part or in full or convert them into equity (shares) of the Issuer ("Resolution Measures"). Other Resolution Measures available include (but are not limited to) transferring the Securities to another entity, varying the terms and conditions of the Securities (including, but without limitation to, varying the maturity of the Securities) or cancelling the Securities. The competent resolution authority may apply Resolution Measures individually or in any combination.

If the resolution authority takes Resolution Measures, Securityholders bear the risk of losing their claims from the Securities. In particular, this includes their claims for payment of the cash amount or redemption amount or for delivery of the delivery item.

Potential investors should consider the risk that they may lose all of their investment, including the principal amount plus any accrued interest, if Resolution Measures are initiated, and should be aware that extraordinary public financial support for troubled banks, if any, would only potentially be used as a last resort after having assessed and exploited, to the maximum extent practicable, the Resolution Measures, including Regulatory Bail-in.

The Issuer expects that it will use the Securities to fulfil particular minimum capital requirements under international and EU banking resolution rules, and has therefore specified Eligible Liabilities Format to apply in the Specific Terms of the Securities. In this case, claims arising under the Securities may not be set off against any claims of the Issuer. No security or guarantee shall be provided at any time to secure claims of the Securityholders under the Securities. Any security or guarantee already provided or granted in the future in connection with other liabilities of the Issuer may not be used for claims under the Securities. Furthermore, any redemption or repurchase of the Securities prior to their scheduled maturity is subject to the prior approval of the competent authority. In addition, an extraordinary early termination of the Securities is excluded. If the Securities are redeemed or repurchased by the Issuer early under circumstances other than those, then the amounts paid must be returned to the Issuer irrespective of any agreement to the contrary. These restrictions may limit the rights of the Issuer and, in particular, of the Securityholders and might expose them to the risk that their investment will have a lower potential return than expected.

Also, the Issuer or its Affiliates may not be willing or able to act as market maker for the Securities. Market making and any other repurchase or any redemption or termination of the Securities prior to their scheduled maturity would require the prior approval of the competent authority in this case. Without approval for repurchase, the liquidity of the Securities would be very limited or might even completely cease, which could make divestiture practically impossible. If the Securities were nevertheless redeemed or repurchased without regulatory preapproval, then the amounts paid to the Securityholders would have to be returned to the Issuer irrespective of any agreement to the contrary.
